a crandria Gazette.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 13.

RED-HEADED GIRL AND WHITE HORSE. -"Here's a red-headed girl and there's a white horse," remarked a well known sporting man who was recently walking down Broadway with a New York Sun reporter. 'What do you mean?" he was asked.

"Didn't you ever hear that before? Every time you meet a red headed girl you see a white horse.'

Half a block further another red-headed girl was met.
"Where's your white horse now?" asked the reporter.

"There's one turning the next corner," he replied. And sure enough, around the corner came a white horse drawing a dray. "They never fail, I tell you. I have been saying 'Here's a red-headed girl and there's a white horse' for fifteen years. I've never got left yet." After parting, the reporter met one more red-headed girl, and after looking for the white horse was not surprised to see a car pass drawn by two of them.

A Berlin writer describes the Countess wife instead of the "better half" of the greatest statesman in Europe. It is it said she shuns society, and with her husband refuse all invitations to attend court balls and receptions.

Thousands of women bless the day on which Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" was made known to them. In all those derangements causing backache, draggingdown sensations, nervous and general debility, it is a sovereign remedy. Its soothing and healing properties render it of the utmost value to ladies suffering from "internal fever," congestion, inflammation, or ulceration. By druggists.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

MES. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYBUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It referes the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhoes, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Nexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper to the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY-SEVEN YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become taining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning pa-

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with mer chants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs n and near the city, and this feature will. as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily in creasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as the daily-is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to
